INDIANA UNIVERSITY NORTHWEST
College of Health and Human Services
School of Nursing
Assistant Professor

The IU Northwest School of Nursing has 17 full-time faculty with additional FTEs in adjunct status and over 200 students. Its Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree is fully accredited by the National League for Nursing Accrediting Commission and the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. The School offers the Bachelors of Science in Nursing degree, including the BA/BS to BSN Mobility Option; a proposal for a Masters Degree in Nursing program is in development. The School is part of the larger College of Health and Human Services that includes Medicine, Social Work, Radiography, Criminal Justice, Dental Hygiene, and others.

A Master’s degree in Nursing and an earned doctorate in Nursing or related field are required. In addition, current clinical nursing practice experience in adult health care in the acute care setting is required. Previous teaching experience is preferred. The applicant must be currently licensed as an RN in Indiana or eligible for endorsement.

Responsibilities for the position will include teaching undergraduate didactic and clinical nursing courses, and community service/faculty governance activities, as well as, conducting independent and/or collaborative research. Research start-up funds and summer support are available.

The position is available August, 2012. Salary and benefits are competitive. The formal review of candidates will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

- 10 month appointment with opportunity for summer teaching (based on availability)
- New competitive salaries
- First year two course release for research start-up
- Summer research support first year
- Masters Degree in Nursing Program under development
- Interprofessional education

Resume with cover letter should be submitted electronically to:

Dr. Linda Delunas, Professor of Nursing
IU Northwest
3400 Broadway
Gary, IN 46408
ldelunas@iun.edu
Indiana University Northwest is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer committed to achieving excellence through diversity. The university actively encourages applications from women, minorities, persons with disabilities and members of other underrepresented groups.