CONSTITUTION OF THE FACULTY ORGANIZATION OF INDIANA UNIVERSITY NORTHWEST

Preamble
The faculty of Indiana University Northwest, in order to provide for the governance of our membership, to create a forum for the free exchange of ideas, to promote excellence in education, to maximize the participation, influence, and the effectiveness of the faculty in the operation and growth of Indiana University Northwest, does hereby constitute itself as the Faculty Organization for Indiana University Northwest, and adopt this Constitution as its instrument of government.

Subject to the limitations imposed by the laws of the State of Indiana and the Board of Trustees of Indiana University, and the Indiana University Faculty Constitution, this Constitution establishes the powers and the duties herein provided for, and confers them upon the Indiana University Northwest Faculty Organization. The Constitution is to be construed and implemented in the spirit of diversity that enhances this university community.

ARTICLE 1: ELIGIBILITY TO VOTE

Section 1.1 The Faculty
Persons holding appointments as full-time faculty with instructional, clinical or research responsibilities of a regularly established academic division or the Library of Indiana University Northwest, shall be members of the Faculty. The Faculty may attend and speak in Faculty Organization meetings, to vote, to serve on a committee, and hold elected positions in the Faculty Organization.

Section 1.2 Administrators Holding Faculty Rank
Faculty members with full-time administrative responsibilities are members of the Faculty and may exercise all faculty privileges, except they may not hold office in the Faculty Organization.

Section 1.3 Emeritus Faculty
An emeritus member of the faculty may exercise faculty privileges to attend and speak in Faculty Organization meetings, but may not vote or hold elected positions in the Faculty Organization.

Section 1.4 Certification of Members
The Chancellor shall certify to the Secretary of the Faculty Organization the names of all academic appointees, and the Secretary shall then certify the membership classification within the Faculty Organization of these appointees. The certification shall be made within two weeks of the opening of the school year and thereafter as appointments occur.
ARTICLE H: THE FACULTY ORGANIZATION

Section 2.1 Method of Governance

The Faculty shall govern itself through the Faculty Organization, which shall exercise the powers and responsibilities of the Faculty. Its decisions in exercising these powers and responsibilities shall be final and subject to the limitations imposed by the laws of the State of Indiana, the Board of Trustees of Indiana University, and the Indiana University Faculty Constitution.

Section 2.2 Composition

The Faculty Organization shall be composed of the voting Faculty.

ARTICLE III: OFFICERS

Section 3.1 President

The President shall be elected from the members of the voting Faculty. The duly elected President of the Faculty Organization shall (1) preside over all Faculty Organization meetings, (2) serve as the Chair of the Executive Committee, (3) serve as one of the University Faculty Council (UFC) Representatives, (4) serve as a member of the campus and the UFC Agenda Committee, (5) implement the decisions of the Faculty Organization and (6) report from time to time to the Organization on matters of importance.

Section 3.2 Vice President

The duly elected Vice President shall be elected from the members of the voting Faculty. The duly elected Vice President of the Faculty Organization shall assist the President in carrying out the President's duties and shall carry out all the duties of the President in the absence of the President. The Vice President shall become the President on the death, resignation, or permanent incapacity of the President.

Section 3.3 Secretary

The duly elected Secretary shall be elected from the members of the voting Faculty. The duly elected Secretary of the Faculty Organization shall record and retain minutes of all Faculty Organization meetings, shall distribute copies of all minutes to all members, shall prepare the agenda for Faculty Organization meetings, shall handle all correspondence for the Faculty Organization, and shall send written or electronic notice of all Faculty Organization meetings to all members. The Secretary shall regularly provide the library with a copy of the minutes to be bound for permanent record and shall send each member of the Board of Trustees a copy of all resolutions passed by the Faculty Organization. The Secretary shall, upon leaving office, turn over all records of the Faculty Organization business to the successor.

Section 3.4 Parliamentarian

The Parliamentarian of the Faculty Organization, who shall be appointed by the President, will advise the President on parliamentary procedure.
Section 3.5 Representative(s) to all University Faculty Council

The University Faculty Council Representative(s) shall attend all university Faculty Council meetings and report on said meetings to the Faculty Organization. Said Representative(s) shall be elected in the same manner as the Officers of the Faculty Organization.

ARTICLE IV: ELECTIONS

Section 4.1 Nominations

The President shall annually appoint an Election Committee of three voting members to hold the election for all elected offices. The Election Committee shall distribute to the voting Faculty a nomination form to record nominations for all elected offices (including Faculty Organization offices, members of the Executive Committee and UFC Representative) during February. The party who places the name in nomination must secure the nominee's consent to run for said office or position prior to placing the name in nomination.

Section 4.2 Voting

The Election Committee shall submit to the voting Faculty a secret mail ballot containing the names of the nominees for all elected offices. The candidate(s) receiving the highest number of votes on the ballot shall be declared elected and the Committee shall report the results to the academic unit, the Faculty, and the Chancellor. In the case of a tie, the selection shall be determined by a run-off election.

Section 4.2 Eligibility to Hold Office

Any member of the voting Faculty of Indiana University Northwest, except faculty members with full-time administrative responsibilities, shall be eligible to hold office in the Faculty Organization.

Section 4.3 Term of Office

The President of the Faculty Organization and members of the Executive Committee shall serve for two years. All other officers shall serve for one year beginning at the end of the Spring semester.

ARTICLE V: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 5.1 Presiding Officer

The President of the Faculty Organization shall be the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall report matters considered and actions taken by the Executive Committee to the next meeting of the Faculty Organization.

Section 5.2 Secretary

The duly elected Secretary of the Faculty Organization shall record and retain minutes of all Executive Committee meetings, shall distribute copies of all minutes to all members, shall prepare the agenda for Executive Committee meetings, shall handle all correspondence for the executive Committee, and shall send written or electronic notice of all Executive Committee meetings to all members. The Secretary shall regularly provide the library with a copy of the minutes to be bound for permanent record. The Secretary shall, upon leaving office, turn over all records of the Executive Committee business to the successor.

Section 5.3 Members

The Executive Committee of the Faculty Organization shall be composed of the President, Vice President, Secretary, the elected members of the Executive Committee, the immediate past President and past Secretary. The elected representative (representatives) from Indiana University Northwest to the University Faculty Council, if he/she or they are not already elected members of the Executive Committee, shall be a non-voting member of the Executive Committee.

Section 5.4 Eligibility

All members of the Indiana University Northwest voting Faculty shall be eligible to serve on the Executive Committee.

Section 5.5 Divisional Representation

Each of the regularly established academic units shall elect one member to the Executive Committee. The Library shall elect one member and three additional members of the Executive Committee shall be elected at large.

Section 5.6 Election

Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected in the same manner as the Officers of the Faculty Organization; however, the election of the divisional members shall take place in March after the announcement of the election of the President, the Vice-President and the Secretary.

Section 5.7 Term

Elections for members of the Executive Committee shall be staggered. For this reason, the term for the first elected members of the Executive Committee shall be one year. Thereafter, the term for all other members of the Executive Committee shall be two years. New members of the Executive Committee shall begin their terms at the end of the Spring semester. Vacancies in the Executive Committee shall be filled by election.
Section 5.8 Duties
The duties of the Executive Committee, or a subcommittee named by it, shall be:

1. To act as a Committee on Committees, or appoint a subcommittee in its stead, to make appointments to the various standing committees of the Faculty Organization. To make appointments to various ad hoc committees. All appointments shall be made in consultation with the Faculty Organization member concerned and with three administrators designated by the Chancellor. All appointments shall be submitted for ratification at the April meeting of the Faculty Organization.

2. To prepare the agenda for Faculty Organization meetings.

3. When requested, to prepare, edit, and/or review resolutions submitted for debate and vote to the Faculty Organization. To refer such resolutions to the appropriate administrative officials and faculty committees. To review and report upon the subsequent action of administrators in implementing the resolution(s).

4. To advise the administration on faculty governance.

5. To supervise the activities of the standing and ad hoc committees.

6. To maintain a file of changes to the Academic Handbook and to work with the office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic affairs to periodically issue an updated version of the Academic Handbook.

7. In the event the full Organization cannot be convened in time, to act provisionally for the faculty in the case of a dire emergency. Any action of the Executive Committee may be reconsidered at the next meeting of the Faculty Organization.

8. To set the time and day of the regular meetings of the Faculty Organization.

9. To take action on matters referred to it by the Faculty Organization. To carry out any and all other duties needed to fulfill the responsibilities imposed on the Executive Committee by the provisions of this Constitution and the bylaws.

ARTICLE VI: STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 6.1 Appointment
The Standing Committees of the Faculty Organization shall consist of the standing committees designated by the bylaws.

Section 6.2 Eligibility
Any member of the Faculty shall be eligible to serve on the standing committees; provided that only those faculty that meet the specific requirements set forth in the bylaws for specific committees can serve on those committees.

Section 6.3 Duties

The standing committees shall make studies, formulate recommendations, prepare resolutions and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the bylaws and the Faculty Organization. Standing committees shall concern themselves with matters at their own initiative, at the request of the Faculty Organization, its President, the Executive Committee, or any administrative officer of Indiana University Northwest. All actions of committees shall be recorded in minutes. The committees shall exercise discretion in reporting matters of a confidential nature. Meetings of standing committees shall be called by the chairpersons of the respective committees. A copy of the minutes shall be given to the President of the Organization. All committee actions are subject to review by the Faculty Organization.

Section 6.4 Records

Chairpersons of all standing committees are responsible for:
1. Keeping a file of all committee minutes and correspondence for the school year, and delivering these documents to the central repository on or before July 1 of that school year.
2. Compiling a written report which includes a description of the work of the committee and an assessment of how the committee carried out its work. This report must be submitted to the President of the Faculty Organization and a copy filed with the central repository on or before July 1 of that school year. Copies of this report are to be distributed to the faculty.
3. The central repository shall keep two copies of all past minutes, reports, and correspondence, and related documents of the Faculty Organization and its standing committees.

Section 6.5 Powers

As agents of the Faculty Organization, committees may make decisions and formulate policies which are subject to the approval of the Faculty Organization. When a committee arrives at a decision or formulates a policy which it believes should be binding, it shall send a written copy of said decision or policy to the Secretary and the President of the Faculty Organization. Said decision or policy shall be scheduled for review by the Faculty Organization at the next convenient Faculty Organization meeting. The Faculty Organization maintains the right to overrule any action taken by a committee. No decision or policy shall become final until it is approved by the Faculty Organization.

ARTICLE VII ELECTED COMMITTEES

Section 7.1 Faculty Board of Review

The Faculty Board of Review shall consist of five tenured members of the faculty, one of whom shall be designated as the presiding member.
Subsection 7.10 Term of Office  The members of the Faculty Board of Review shall hold office from the first day of February for a term of one year that shall be automatically extended to allow those members to complete the review of any case under consideration. No member shall hold office for two successive terms of office.

Subsection 7.11 Responsibility of the Faculty Board of Review
(a.) The Faculty Board of Review shall hear cases concerning academic freedom, tenure, promotion, salary adjustment, and the nature or conditions of work. Any member of the faculty desiring a review of administrative action in these stated areas shall request in writing a hearing by the Faculty Board of Review.

(b.) The Faculty Board of Review may also express its judgment to administrators on administrative action by giving an opinion and or a recommendation on any case presented to it which raises an issue of academic freedom, tenure, promotion, salary adjustment, or the nature of conditions of work.

Subsection 7.12 Procedure of the Faculty Board of Review
(a.) In cases involving academic freedom or tenure, the Faculty Board of Review shall accord each party the right to have counsel of his/her own choosing, to present witnesses and other evidence in his/her behalf, and to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him/her.

(b.) In cases involving promotion, salary, or the nature or conditions of work, the Board of Review shall hear the faculty member concerned and make such other investigation as it deems necessary or advisable in formulating its opinion and recommendation.

(c.) In conducting appeals, the Faculty Board of Review shall adhere to all other procedures specified in the bylaws to the Constitution.

Subsection 7.13 Report to the Faculty. The Faculty Board of Review shall report annually to the faculty the number and types of cases presented to it, and indicate the number of cases sustained.

Subsection 7.14 Appointment of Temporary Member  Whenever a member of the Faculty Board of Review is unable to serve for any reason, the elected representatives on the Faculty Board of Review shall, subject to the approval of the President of the Faculty Organization, appoint a member to fill the vacancy for the particular case pending before the Board.

ARTICLE VIII MEETINGS

Section 8.1 Regular Organization Meetings
(a.) The Faculty Organization shall hold monthly meetings during each academic year. Early in the first semester the Chancellor shall report in detail on the state of the Northwest Campus of Indiana University, summarizing the academic year, public service, and fiscal operations of the preceding academic year. The Chancellor may make-recommendations to the faculty and call pertinent problems to their attention.
(b.) Regular and special meetings are open to all faculty, students, and staff of Indiana University Northwest. The presiding officer, in her/her sound discretion, may recognize any person from the floor that desires to speak.

(c) The meetings shall be conducted in accord with Robert's Rules of Order. The Agenda for regular meetings of the Faculty Organization shall be published no later than forty-eight hours before the meeting and only those items listed on the published Agenda shall be voted on by the Organization at its regular meeting. All resolutions shall be submitted in writing on a form prescribed by the Secretary. Adjournment shall be two hours after a meeting is scheduled to begin unless the members present vote unanimously to extend the meeting.

(d.) At the meetings of the Faculty Organization, the officers of the Faculty Organization may speak "off the record" if the officer vacates his/her office temporarily for that purpose in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.
Section 8.2 Special Faculty Organization Meetings

Special meetings of the Faculty Organization may be called by the President or in his/her absence by the Vice President or by the Secretary. The Secretary of the Faculty Organization shall notify the Voting Faculty by mail or E-mail of the meeting at least one week in advance of the date of a special meeting.

Section 8.3 Quorum at Faculty Organization and Executive Committee Meetings

Forty voting members shall constitute a quorum at regular and special meetings of the Faculty Organization. Fifty-one percent of the members shall constitute a quorum for regular and special Executive Committee meetings.

Section 8.4 Regular Executive Committee Meetings

The Executive Committee shall hold regular monthly meetings preceding the monthly Faculty Organization meeting throughout the academic year. The meetings are open to all faculty, students, and staff of Indiana University. Regular meetings can be called with one week notice to the members.

Section 8.5 Special Executive Committee Meetings

The President of the Faculty Organization can convene a special Executive Committee meeting to consider emergency matters with forty-eight hour notice to the members.

Section 8.6 Executive Session

Both the Faculty Organization and the Executive Committee can convene an executive session whenever confidential matters that pertain to named individuals are to be discussed. When confidential matters are to be discussed, these items shall be designated as confidential on the agenda. When agenda items marked as confidential are ready to be heard, the presiding officer shall declare the meeting in executive session. At this time the presiding officer shall direct everyone in the room, except those authorized to vote, to leave the meeting. Only those items listed on the agenda as confidential shall be discussed in executive session. When discussion on those items is concluded, the President shall declare the meeting in open session, conduct any necessary votes, and proceed with the rest of the Faculty Organization business.

Section 8.7 Faculty Organization Business

Only those items listed on the Agenda that has been published and distributed to the faculty forty-eight hours before the meeting shall be discussed and voted on by the Faculty Organization or the Executive Committee at its regular meeting.
ARTICLE IX: FACULTY ASSEMBLIES

Section 9.1 The Call for an Assembly

(a.) Faculty Assemblies may be called and presided over by the Chancellor for the purpose of transmitting communications from either the President of the University, the Board of Trustees, or the Chancellor. The first assembly of the school year shall be an all University assembly.

(b.) Faculty Assemblies may be called and presided over by the President of the Faculty Organization for the purpose of providing a broad and open forum for the discussion of matters that do, will, or may affect the faculty.

Section 9.2 The Business of an Assembly

No business may be conducted at an Assembly.

ARTICLE X: AUTHORITY OF THE FACULTY

Section 10.1 Legislative Authority

Subject to the limitations imposed by the laws of the State of Indiana, the Board of Trustees of Indiana University, and the Indiana University Faculty Constitution, the Faculty at IUN, through the Faculty Organization and its Committees, shall have the authority to establish policy and procedure with the advice and consent of the administration in the following areas:

Section 11.2 Access to Records

Any voting member of the Faculty shall have access to the records of the Faculty Organization. This access shall include viewing a copy of the records. A written copy of specified records shall be provided to any voting member of the Faculty within forty-eight hours after a written request is served on the library unless the request for records is extensive. If the request for records is extensive, the library shall set a reasonable time for responding to said request.

ARTICLE XII: ADOPTION OF THIS CONSTITUTION Section 12.1

Proposal
This proposed Constitution shall be first be presented to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall schedule this Constitution(s) for first reading at the next regular meeting of the Faculty Organization.

Section 12.2 Revision

(a) At the first reading, this Constitution, accompanied by a proposed set of resolutions implementing key policy decisions and Bylaws, shall be presented to the Faculty Organization at its regular meeting. Within ten working days after the Faculty Organization meeting, the Faculty Organization shall schedule at least one Faculty Assembly to discuss this proposed Constitution. Members of the Constitution Revision Committee shall be present at the Faculty Assembly(s) convened to discuss this Constitution. No vote shall be taken at that Assembly(s). An advisory vote on the proposed resolutions and changes presented at the Assembly(s) will be taken for the guidance of the Constitution Revision Committee.

(b) After the Faculty Assembly(s), the members of the Constitution Revision Committee shall convene to consider any and all recommended changes to the Constitution. The Constitution Revision Committee shall, in the exercise of its sound discretion, adopt as many of the changes as feasible, revise the proposed Constitution, and submit the revised Constitution and revised resolutions to the Faculty Organization for approval of the voting Faculty.

Section 12.3 Debate

At the next regularly scheduled Faculty Organization meeting, the revised Constitution shall be submitted to the Faculty Organization for debate and discussion. Within ten working days after the Faculty Organization meeting, the Election Committee shall prepare and submit a secret mail ballot to the voting Faculty asking them whether they choose to adopt either a Faculty Senate or a new Faculty Organization. All ballots shall be returned within ten working days. If a minimum of one hundred faculty vote in favor of this ballot, the new Constitution that received a majority vote shall be submitted to the Faculty for ratification.

Section 12.3 Ratification

Within seven working days after the faculty votes to choose a new Constitution, the Faculty Organization shall submit the proposed Constitution to the faculty for ratification by mail ballot. The vote on this proposed Constitution shall be by secret mail ballot of all voting members of the faculty. The ballots shall be distributed within seven working days after the Faculty Organization has voted in regular or special session to adopt this Constitution. All ballots shall be returned to the Election Committee within ten working days after they are distributed. If a minimum of one hundred faculty vote, the Constitution shall be ratified when two-thirds of those faculty voting by the close of the ten day voting period have voted in its favor. If this proposed Constitution is approved in this manner, the Chairman of the Faculty Organization shall declare said Constitution adopted.

Section 12.4 Effective Date of this Constitution and Revocation of all other Constitutions
This Constitution shall become effective at the beginning of the academic year following its passage. By enacting this Constitution, the faculty of Indiana University Northwest hereby revokes all previously enacted Constitutions. This revocation shall become effective at the same time this Constitution becomes effective.

ARTICLE XIII: AMENDMENTS TO THIS CONSTITUTION

Section 13.1 Proposal

A motion to amend this Constitution shall be presented to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall schedule the proposed amendment for the next regular meeting of the Organization or at any special meeting of the Organization occurring at least one week after the presentation of the proposed amendment to the Organization by the Executive Committee.

Section 13.2 Readings

ARTICLE VII: ELECTED COMMITTEES

Section 7.2.1 Appeals to the Faculty Board of Review The Faculty Board of Review shall hear appeals from any faculty member concerning administrative actions regarding his/her academic freedom, tenure, promotion, salary adjustment or nature and conditions of work.

Section 7.2.2 Time for Filing an Appeal An Appeal shall be filed within sixty (60) calendar days of the issuance of the final administrative action giving rise to the appeal. If the sixtieth day is on a weekend or holiday, the appeal must be submitted by the next business day.

Section 7.2.3 Method of Filing an Appeal All appeals shall be in writing, placed in a sealed envelope and filed by submitting the appeal to (1) any member of the Faculty Board of Review or (2) to the President of the Faculty Organization who shall be required to transmit the appeal to the Faculty Board of Review. The person filing the appeal shall deliver a copy of the appeal to the administrative officer whose action is being appealed at the time the appeal is filed.

Section 7.2.4 Drafting the Appeal An appeal shall contain at least (1) a specification of the administrative action being appealed, including an identification of the administrative officer(s) involved in the appeal; (2) the reasons for requesting the review, including any supporting documents; (3) a list of persons the Faculty Board of Review may wish to interview in regard to this case; and (4) a proposed remedy.

Section 7.3.1 General Hearing Procedures of the Faculty Board of Review Ten days prior to the hearing, both the faculty member bringing the appeal and the administrative officer whose action is being appealed shall give the presiding officer of the Faculty Board of Review a written list of all witnesses and a written list of all evidence he/she plans to call or introduce at the hearing. The Faculty Board of Review will notify these witnesses of the time and place of the hearing and request their attendance.

Section 7.3.2 Setting the Hearing in Cases involving Academic Freedom or Tenure The Faculty Board of Review shall set a hearing date that is mutually agreeable to the faculty member filing the appeal and to the administrative officer(s) whose actions are being appealed. The faculty member filing the appeal, the administrative officer(s) whose action is being appealed and all witnesses notified to appear shall attend the hearing.

Section 7.3.3 Setting the Hearing in Cases involving Promotion, Salary Adjustment, Discipline or the Nature and Conditions of Work The Faculty Board of Review shall set a hearing date that is agreeable to the faculty member filing the appeal. The Faculty Board of Review shall conduct any investigation it deems necessary to gather the data needed to render a fair decision. At the time of the hearing the faculty member may explain and elaborate upon the written appeal that he/she has filed. In its discretion, the Faculty Board of Review may meet separately with the faculty member filing the appeal and the administrative officer(s) involved or it may request a joint meeting.

Section 7.3.4 Confidentiality of Hearings The Proceedings of the Faculty Board of Review shall remain confidential and all hearings will be closed. The faculty member filing the appeal, the administrative officer(s) involved in the appeal, witnesses, and members of the Faculty Board of Review shall avoid public statements about matters before the Board. No public announcement of the actions or decisions of the Faculty Board of Review shall be made public unless the faculty member filing the appeal and the administrative officer(s) so agree. Such announcement shall include either the complete report of the Faculty Board of Review or an abridgement of that report when the abridgement is necessary to protect the privacy of individuals or the confidentiality of records.

Section 7.3.5 Conflicts of Interest The Faculty Board of Review and its members shall be sensitive to the existence of or the appearance of conflicts or interest in any case coming before the Board. Conflicts of interest may arise in any of the following circumstances:

1. A member of the Board is a party to an appeal. A member may be a party if he/she files an appeal or his/her action is the action appealed.
2. A member of the Board is consulted about the appeal. This may occur either during or before his/her election to the Board. Consultation with either a colleague or an administrative officer is covered.
3. A member of the Board is a member of the same department or other academic unit as the faculty member filing the appeal.
4. A member of the Board has an on-going professional relationship with either party to the appeal. This includes on-going research projects and/or on-going team-teaching, course-development, or related activities.
5. A member of the Board has or has had an association or relationship with either party to the appeal and the nature of that association or relationship is such that the member of the Board may not be able to render an objective decision in the matter.

Section 7.3.6 Excusing a Member Whenever a conflict of interest appears to exist, the member of the Board shall excuse himself/herself from the appeal on his own initiative. In any event, whenever the Board reasonably believes that a conflict on interest may exist, the Board shall ask that member to excuse himself or herself from the appeal.

Section 7.3.7 Decisions of the Faculty Board of Review (a) The Faculty Board of Review shall write its decision and distribute that decision to the faculty member and administrative officer(s)
