Convicted means you were declared guilty by a judge or you pleaded guilty in court. A conviction may have even taken place if you did not pay a fine or spend time in jail or in prison. A conviction could have been for either a misdemeanor or a felony. For IU purposes, driving while under the influence, driving on a suspended license, reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident, and vehicular homicide are not minor traffic violations and must be declared (whether the result is a ticket or a more severe penalty). Minor traffic violations that result in tickets do not need to be declared. A criminal history investigation is done on each new employee, and employment with the University is conditional, subject to the findings of a criminal history investigation. Answering yes to this question does not automatically disqualify you for employment; however, information obtained from the investigation will be used in the employment review process.

If yes, you must disclose for each offense: date, charge, city, state and disposition:
(Include type of offense (e.g., misdemeanor, felony) and judgement (e.g., guilty, conditional dismissal).)
