

5 points FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH THE CORRECT TERMS (This is NOT a matching)

Possible terms:

FORAGERS

HORTICULTURALISTS

PASTORALISTS

AGRICULTURALISTS

(abbreviate as HORT)

(abbreviate as PAST)

(abbreviate as AGRI)

_____ are also called hunter - gardeners
 _____ are also called hunter - gatherers _____ live in BANDS _____ Yanomamo
 _____ major work can be fishing _____ males work in the fields to grow crops
 _____ plow and irrigate and fertilize _____ Mbuti
 _____ includes nomads and Bakhtiari
 _____ only ones who produce a surplus that feeds others

_____ Aztec
 _____ peasants
 _____ major work is raising animals
 _____ Inuit
 _____ Ju/'hoansi
 _____ women tend gardens
 _____ slash and burn
 _____ most egalitarian
 _____ settled down; not move around _____ Kayapo

3 points MATCH THE TERM TO THE DEFINITION:

CULTURAL ADAPTATIONS

ECOSYSTEM

PROGRESS

CULTURE AREA

CULTURE CORE

CARRYING CAPACITY

_____ the notion that humans are moving forward towards a better stage of life
 _____ the natural environment and all the organisms living in a place _____ the ideas, activities, and technologies that enable societies to survive and even thrive.
 _____ a geographic region of similar environments in which people live with similar lifeways.
 _____ that part of culture that has to do with making a living, like getting or choosing food _____ number of people that land can support with a given subsistence strategy

9. Which set of foods was domesticated first by Native Americans?

- A. pigs & rice B. corn & tomatoes & potatoes C. Sheep, barley, wheat

10. The reading was titled "Why can't People Feed Themselves?" What was the answer to that question?

PRINT FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

The people who call themselves "Ju/'hoansi" (pronounced "zhut-wasi" with the "s" nasalized) are often known by several other names; give me Two of those other names _____ & _____