

Multiple choice: circle the letter (only) of the one best answer:

1. When studying geography, a flat map of the world gives a different perspective than a globe; why?

- A. A globe distorts the relative sizes of the countries and continents, but a flat map is accurate
- B. A globe distorts the shapes of the countries and continents, but a flat map is accurate
- C. A flat map has a "center", which seems to give that region more importance to the world.
- D. Globe have a 'cultural message', while flat maps do not.
- D. All of these are true.

2. Which is FALSE about Franz Boas?

- A. Boas taught and inspired many early anthropologists - he "fathered" American anthropology.
- B. Boas initiated the four field approach of combining biology, archaeology, culture, and linguistics
- C. Boas studied Africans and Asians.
- D. Boas is associated with the idea of cultural relativism.
- E. Boas believed that the study of anthropology would lead us to defeat racism

3. Cultural Relativism means:

- A. Ethnocentrism
- B. Culture-bound theories
- C. Believing that all societies should be judged by the rules of your own culture
- D. Looking at other cultures objectively, in terms of themselves, like you would study rocks
- E. All of these are examples of cultural relativism.

4. Which is NOT true, based on the reading in the textbook?

- A. Traditional healing in Africa is flourishing in the era of AIDS.
- B. CRM means Complete Remains Microscopy and is a type of Biological Anthropology.
- C. "Globalization" includes the study of how the idea of same-sex marriages spreads and changes.
- D. Archaeologists study garbage to learn how much alcohol people really drink and food they waste
- E. Anthropology is both a science and one of the humanities.

5. The Nacirema article shows us that:

- A. Everything has a function
- B. All people are violent by nature
- C. Their Holy Mouth Men speak in many languages
- D. Americans can look strange to people of other cultures
- E. Nacirema have no beliefs about medicine

Match one to one, every answer is used once

PHYSICAL	CULTURE	YANOMAMO	ARTIFACTS	APPLIED ANTHRO
PALEOANTHROPOLOGY	THEORY	ANTHROPOLOGY	ARCHAEOLOGY	FORENSIC ANTHRO
FOSSILS	PRIMATOLOGY	ETHNOLOGY	ETHNOGRAPHY

- _____ one of the four traditional branches of anthropology; it studies all of the biology of humans
- _____ knowledge and behaviors passed down by learning generation after generation.
- _____ one of four traditional branches of anthropology; it studies cultures of the past using artifacts
- _____ biological anthropology that specializes in studying human evolution using fossils
- _____ comparative cultural anthropology; general and universal aspects of being humans
- _____ to scientists, a set of hypotheses well supported by evidence
- _____ the holistic study of the human species: biology & behavior
- _____ preserved biological remains: bones, teeth, footprints, etc
- _____ a tribe of Indians in South America
- _____ a study of a particular group of people
- _____ anything made or modified by humans
- _____ study of monkeys and apes
- _____ using methods and knowledge of anthro for practical purposes
- _____ profiling the individual with skeletal remains for legal purposes

PRINT YOUR FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

Bonus: Why is one of the maps in the book upside down?

"Anthropologists! Anthropologists!"