

Match one to one:

REVITALIZATION

DVORAK

INNOVATION

DIFFUSION

GENOCIDE

SYNCRETISM

ACCULTURATION

BIG MAN

- _____ the blending of indigenous and foreign ideas and customs
- _____ A deliberate attempt by a society under the stress of acculturation to construct a more satisfying culture using aspects of their traditional religion
- _____ The biological and cultural extermination of one group of people by another
- _____ A technological advance that is resisted by American cultural inertia
- _____ the spread of ideas and practices from one group to another
- _____ the creation of a new idea, or the modification of one.
- _____ the effect on a small traditional society from contact with the larger industrialized world
- _____ a tribal political figure who manipulates reciprocity to his advantage

5. Which of these is considered a precipitator of rebellion or revolution?

- A. Economic setbacks and reversals — people lose what they had gained
- B. Old leaders lose prestige
- C. Charismatic opposition leaders emerge
- D. Government loses support of media and people
- E. All of these are frequent precipitators

6. The reading "Why Can't People Feed Themselves" said that Third World people do not raise enough food because:

- a. they do not know how
- b. their land is not suitable
- c. for various historical reasons, the land is used now mostly for cash crops
- d. they are lazy and prefer to buy foreign food rather than grow their own
- e. the whole earth could not possibly raise enough food for everyone, so some must go hungry.

7. Which is TRUE about the Snowmobile Revolution (reading in textbook, and movie)?

- A. The study was about Canadian Indian reindeer herders
- B. It allowed the Lapps to become independent of any outside goods and return to self sufficiency
- C. It caused a few people to become wealthy with large herds, but most gave up herding altogether
- D. Many Samis stole snowmobiles
- E. All of these are true

8. The single most devastating event in Yanomamo history:

- A. Brazilian Gold Rush of 1987
- B. Great forest fire of 1990
- C. Drought of 1989
- D. Conquering of Venezuela by Brazilian army in 1994
- E. Native discovery of Viagra, 1996

9. Yanomamo are beginning to live in separate houses, with walls; this is to:

- A. Hide instances of incest
- B. Hide their Western goods so they don't have to share them
- C. Increase efficiency of government provided air conditioners
- D. Avoid looking at relatives of deceased persons
- E. Allow them to pray in their new religion

10. The price of progress; acculturation or Westernization has usually involved:

- A. Governments pushing progress on tribal people not just for the good of the tribal people but for the benefit of the government and other interests as well
- B. Increase in tooth decay among the natives
- C. Increase in malnutrition among the natives
- D. Deterioration of the environmental ecozones.
- E. All of these are common

PRINT FIRST NAME _____ LAST _____

BONUS: give me two reasons why the Spanish conquerors did not get diseases from the Indians

