

Multiple choice: circle the one best answer:

1. An alternative, feminine role for males in many American Indian tribes is called:

- A. berdache (or two spirit)
- B. manly hearted woman
- C. Windigo Spirit (or amok)
- D. bi-adolescence
- E. Hijra

2. The modal personality for Yanomamo men is:

- a. shabono
- b. kindness
- c. obedience
- d. waiteri
- e. restraint

2a. In the movie CHILDREN, which group was NOT featured?

- a. English
- b. Africans
- c. Melanesians
- d. Indians (Asia)
- d. American Indians

3. Which is a culture bound psychosis in America?

- A. Sickle cell anemia
- B. anorexia nervosa
- C. influenza
- D. nacirema

4. In the movie CHILDREN, what was the main idea?

- A. Children are the same the whole world over
- B. All children must learn table manners
- C. Childrearing practices shape adult personalities
- D. Boys will be boys
- E. Parents everywhere have the same expectations for their children

MATCH one to one

PERSONALITY	BENEDICT	MEAD	TAT	WINDIGO	INTERSEXUAL
SELF-AWARENESS		MODAL	NATIONAL CHARACTER		TRANSGENDER
_____	Canadian Indian ethnic psychosis in which a hunter fears being turned into a cannibal by a monster spirit
_____	referred to the Zuni as Apollonian
_____	tested the hypothesis that adolescent stress and strain is biological in nature
_____	statistically, the most common
_____	a person who is biologically not quite male or female
_____	a person who chooses a culturally defined gender construct other than the biologically defined and matching 'male' and 'female'
_____	the distinctive way a person thinks and behaves
_____	WWII at a distance studies of culture and personality done by American anthropologists
_____	the process by which one identifies oneself as a distinct individual
_____	test used in the field by psychological anthropologists

9/10 In detail, tell me the differences between the child rearing practices called "Independence Training" and "Dependence Training"; what different adult personalities do they produce?

PRINT FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

BONUS QUESTION: where fat is a mark of beauty, how and when do they insure that girls will get fat?

