

A104 Quiz # 6 Winter 2008

Fill in the blanks with one of these four: BAND TRIBE CHIEFDOM STATE an exogamous group of about 40 foragers who live and travel together _____ England in the time of King Arthur _____ The Yanomamo are one big _____ Redistribution is found only in these two kinds of society: _____ and _____ We live in a _____ The !Kung live in a _____ Egalitarian but with subunits such as villages or bands _____ Big Men are only in a _____

 A society in which everyone is ranked by the family they are born into _____ Formal Laws, but social mobility thru acquiring power or wealth _____

MATCH ONE TO ONE, EVERY ANSWER IS USED ONCE

Cacao beans	Reciprocity	Redistribution	Potlatch
Pig Feast	Leveling Mechanism	Conspicuous Consumption
Kula Ring	Yams	Melanesia

_____ were used as money by the Aztecs. NW Coast Indian feast and giveaway _____
 The reading "Too Many Bananas" was about the anthropologists learning the local rules of _____ What Trobriand men give to their sisters and daughters, but receive from their wives _____ _____ is a culture area that includes the Trobriands.
 Malinowski studied this exchange system of ritual items _____ Income taxes are _____ Any custom that keeps the rich from getting too much richer than others _____
 Spending money on a Rolex that you don't need to, just for the status _____
 A custom in Melanesia by which a man tries to become a Big Man by giving away food items _____

BONUS QUESTIONS FOR QUIZ # 6: fill-ins

- A. When a group of unrelated boys go thru an initiation together, they are an example of an AGE _____
 B. The status they now have as a result of the initiation is an example of an AGE _____

QUIZ # 7 Circle the letter of the one best answer:

- The !Kung told the anthropologist that the Christmas ox he bought for the feast was "too skinny"; that was an example of: A. A formal social control B. An informal social control
 C. Redistribution D. A Potlatch E. A Kula
- The "Trial by Ordeal" is found in the state of Liberia, and it is a carryover from the chiefdom of the: A. Kpelle B. Inuit C. Melanesia D. !Kung E. Nuer
- To become a man, a Nuer boy must receive gar, which is: A. A bunch of Pigs B. Cuts on his forehead C. A Spear D. Clothing F. Yams
- Which is NOT a common interest association? A. In America, the Elks
 B. Among the Cheyenne, a men's warrior sodality C. Secret societies in which dancers wear masks
 D. The English Royal Family E. In America, a craft club for senior citizens
- In a tribal society, which custom does NOT serve the function of keeping the society from splitting up into independent smaller groups? A. Reciprocity, including brideprice
 B. Warrior associations on the Great Plains that each included Indian men from different bands
 C. Sets of unrelated boys going thru initiation together D. Potlatches E. Yanomamo warfare
- Reciprocity differs from a cash sale or bartering in that only reciprocity: A. Is an exchange that results in a future obligation B. Involves cash value
 C. Is limited to egalitarian societies D. Gets one the best deal
- Which one is FALSE about the Yanomamo? A) Yanomami villagers who grow dissatisfied with their village head leave the village.
 B) The only leadership position is the village head.
 C) The Yanomami village head has the right to issue orders.
 D) They make micromovements because of gardens
 E) They make macromovements because of warfare
- In the Yanomamo book, Chagnon talks about another anthropologist, Marvin Harris. Harris thinks the Yanomamo fight so much because: A. They like to. B. Protein is scarce C. The drugs make them fierce D. Of insects
- The Yanomamo might have less intra-tribal warfare if they had: a. Common interest associations (sodalities) and secret societies.
 b. religious ceremonies that included the whole tribe at once
 c. age grades and age sets with large scale initiation ceremonies.
 d. a complex bridewealth exchange system.
 e. all of above.
- The song contest in which men insult each other as a way of settling disputes occurs among the: A. Inuit B. Melanesians C. Yanomamo D. Kpelle E. Nuer

PRINT NAME _____

BONUS Question: What is a Men's House?

THE FLYING McCOYS BY GARY & GLENN McCOY

