

3 points FILL IN WITH ONE OF THE FOUR SUBSISTENCE STRATEGIES:

FORAGING

HORTICULTURE

PASTORALISM

AGRICULTURE

_____ hunting and gathering
 _____ Ju/'hoansi, Inuit
 _____ Basseri in the movie and the Bahktiari in the text _____ traditional Amish _____ men plow, irrigate, reuse land

_____ hunting and gardening _____ peasants
 _____ live in egalitarian bands
 _____ animals = wealth

_____ Nuer
 _____ Yanomamo
 _____ Aborigines

Circle the letter of the one best answer:

1. To become a man, a Nuer boy must receive gar, which is:

- A. A bunch of Pigs B. Cuts on his forehead C. A Spear D. Clothing F. Yams

2. Which set of foods was domesticated first by Native Americans?

- A. pigs & chickens B. corn & tomatoes & potatoes C. Cattle & wheat

3. The big advantage of the first agriculture over foraging was that growing food:

- A. Was easier, less work B. Healthier, less disease, better nutrition
 C. Was more reliable, fewer famines D. Supported more people in a given area

4. Which is FALSE?

- A. Foragers today live in marginal places that are too cold or too dry for food production.
 B. Until recently, Yanomamo clothing was just strings around the waist; men tied their penises to theirs.
 C. Yanomamo are often bitten by snakes.
 D. Eskimos traditionally spent the winter living in igloos and hunting seals thru the ice sheets.
 E. The Aztecs were foragers.

5. Which is FALSE about how Eskimos think and feel? (from the reading "Eskimo Science")

- A. They say that animals are smarter than they are; they can learn from polar bears
 B. They are closely connected to the lives of animals, not separated from it like we are.
 C. An old experienced Eskimo man can tell when a whale is going to surface.
 D. Eskimos have to outsmart the animals in order to catch and eat them.
 E. They feel that the world was created just for them; animals are their inferiors.

6. Yanomamo hunt monkeys with:

- A. Traps made with rope made from tree bark C. Spears D. Blowguns

7. The most important food item in the Yanomamo diet is:

- A. Monkey meat B. Corn
 C. Fish D. Plantain E. Yerba Mate

Print your first name _____ last _____

BONUS QUESTIONS

The migrant farm workers who pick apples in Maine come mostly from what country?

The Aztecs lived in what is now what country?

"Everyday you should eat something from each of the five basic food groups: Fried blubber, boiled blubber, stewed blubber, baked blubber and raw blubber."