

4 point Fill ins: each term can be used more then once or not at all:

Endogamy	Polygamy	Exogamy	Marriage
Polyandry	Polygyny	Permissive	Monogamy
Levirate	Ghost marriage	Woman marriage	Berdache
Windigo	Amok	Anorexia	Sororate
			Intersexual

- _____ means marriage within your own group
- _____ any union between two or more people that establishes rights and obligations among them and their children and their relatives (such as sexual access, property, assigning children to families, status, economic obligations, etc.)
- _____ refers to a marriage between a man and more than one woman, but not to a woman and more than one man
- _____ person born physically intermediate between the male and female sexes
- _____ the practice by which a man marries his brother's widow
- _____ culture-bound syndrome (ethnic psychosis) in which a Canadian Indian hunter fears he has been bewitched by the cannibal monster.
- _____ Native American transgender status (also called two-spirit or winkte)
- _____ child rearing practice that is intermediate between dependence and independence training, found among foragers, and some modern families too.

CIRCLE THE LETTER OF THE ONE BEST ANSWER:

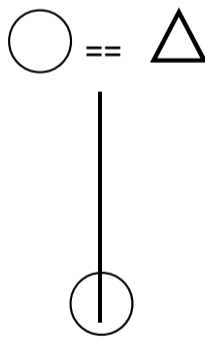

5. Three of these practices are frequently found customs that function to reduce conflict among a man's co-wives; Which one does NOT reduce conflicts?

- A. He should marry sisters
- B. The wives are ranked in order of marriage
- C. Make the first wife take care of all the others' children
- D. Provide separate housing for each wife

6. Which is FALSE about Yanomamo villages?

- A. Highland villages do not have the highly developed and chronic warfare found in the lowland area
- B. Short distance 'micromovements' of villages are done because of gardens and hunting
- C. Long distance 'macromovements' are done because of warfare.
- D. Chagnon, your author, found out that Yanomamo men say that they go on raids to drive away other villages so they will have better hunting for themselves – the 'protein' theory
- E. Yanomamo return to old abandoned gardens to harvest fruit.

7/8 (Better use a pencil if you have one) Here are John and Mary and their child Leslie; draw in Mary's parents, and a brother and a sister for Mary.

We have read about arranged marriages in India and Japan;

9. give one example of how kids feel about having their spouses chosen for them:

10. give one example of what parents look for in choosing a mate for their child:

PRINT YOUR FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

BONUS QUESTION: for what reasons might a man's first wife ask that he marry a second wife?