

1. All religions and all societies (including our own) describe their own origin and early history, with “stories” about the supernatural; social scientists (and most theologians) refer to these stories as:

- A. myths    B. hypotheses    C. humanities    D. evolutions    E. biosyntheses    F. Theories

2. Which of these is NOT one of the four traditional sub-fields of anthropology?

- A. Archaeology    B. Sociology    C. Physical Anthropology    D. Linguistic Anthropology

3. Mammals can be distinguished from other animals in that only mammals, and all mammals, have:

- A. backbones    B. warm blood    C. live births    D. nipples    E. eyes    F. ears    G. brains

4. Primates can be distinguished from other mammals in that all primates, and only primates, have:

- A. The ability to walk long distances on two legs    B. Stereoscopic vision    C. Nipples

- D. Grasping hands with opposable thumbs and fingernails    D. Hair    F. Grasping tails

5. The method of science is to observe the natural world, which leads to the discovery of some kind of patterns in the observations; tentative explanations (or “educated guesses”) for the causes of those patterns are called:

- A. myths    B. hypotheses    C. humanities    D. evolutions    E. biosyntheses    F. Theories

6. Linnaeus grouped species into larger categories such as families and orders based on their:

- A. visible external characteristics, such as color of fur    B. whether they were edible

- C. important anatomical characters such as type of skeleton and teeth

- D. time of creation by God.    E. Similarity to humans

7. Which is FALSE about Linnaeus’ system for naming plants and animals?

- A. It used Latin.    B. it was binomial — each species name had two parts

- C. The name of the genus is the first part of the name of the species

- D. Both parts are always capitalized — like Homo Sapiens

8a. Paleoanthropologists study:

- A. Artifacts, and ruins of ancient cities    B. Non-human primates    C. early written languages

- D. Fossils of ancient humans    E. Non-Western societies and their cultures, such as the Yanomamo

8b. Paleoanthropologists belong to what subfield of anthropology?

- A. Biological    B. Cultural    C. Linguistic    D. archaeological    E. forensic

9. Give a definition or description of “Anthropology” that could appear in a college guide for high school students:

10a. Archaeologists study:

- A. Artifacts, and ruins of ancient cities    B. Non-human primates    C. early written languages

- D. Fossils of ancient humans    E. Non-Western societies and their cultures, such as the Yanomamo

10b. The brown bear, the black bear, and the polar bear

are all put in the category Ursus. Ursus is the name of their:

- A. Species    B. Genus    C. Order    D. Color

PRINT YOUR FIRST NAME _____ LAST _____

Bonus question: what did the article mean by “Anthropodenial”?