

Circle the LETTER of the one best answer:

1. Which is FALSE about prosimians? A. Most are diurnal B. They tend to prefer insects as food
 C. Most of them have wet noses D. most of them have grooming claws and tooth combs
 E. Some books put the tarsiers in a separate group instead of with the other prosimians

2. Which is FALSE about prosimians?

- A. Lorises come in two types: the speedy galagos and the slow, slender lorises
 B. Tarsiers have long legs and catch prey by leaping
 C. All the wild lemurs in the world live in Madagascar
 D. Ring-tail is a kind of lemur
 E. There are many kinds of tarsiers, but only a couple of kinds of lemurs.

3. Which is FALSE about Anthropoid primates?

- A. They are all the monkeys and the apes and humans
 B. They have flat incisors for eating fruit
 C. The group "anthropoid" can be subdivided into the groups catarrhine and platyrrhine
 D. Mostly have single births, are active in the daytime, have bigger brains, and are more social than prosimians
 E. They are all 100% arboreal

4. The adult human dental formula is 2.1.2.3; the "3" refers to the fact that humans usually develop:

- A. Three premolar teeth in each quarter of the jaws B. Six molar teeth total in the jaws
 C. Three incisor teeth in the upper jaw D. Twelve molar teeth total in the jaws
 E. Three teeth by the time they are three months old.

5. Which is FALSE about New World Monkeys?

- A. they are called platyrrhines B. They have more teeth (36) than catarrhines do (32)
 C. They live in South and Central America D. Some, but not all, have prehensile tails
 E. Their noses are arched like yours, with the nostrils parallel and pointing down

6. Which is FALSE about Old World Monkeys?

- A. All of them have very long tails B. They have rump pads to sit on
 C. Some have cheek pouches, and others have sacculated stomachs for digesting leaves.
 D. None have prehensile tails E. They are grouped with the apes into the category "Catarrhine"

7. Which is FALSE about the marmosets and tamarins?

- A. They are small, no larger than a squirrel B. They tend to have twin births
 C. They use their fingernails like they were claws. D. Other adults help carry the babies
 E. They have truly prehensile tails, with a "naked" touch pad. F. They eat sap and gum

8. Which is an OWM that has a sacculated stomach to digest leaves?

- A. Baboon B. Colobus C. Squirrel monkey D. Aye-aye E. Macaque

FILL INS not all answers are used:

Sexual Dimorphism

Uakari

_____ swelling of the anal-genital area when they are ready to mate and conceive _____ sacred monkey of India _____ fastest running monkey

_____ OWM sit on these _____ only nocturnal anthropoid _____ hairless faces can change color

_____ 100% carnivorous

_____ big African monkeys with huge teeth and short tails

Rump Pads

Langur

Estrus

Baboon

Menstruation

Douroucouli

Patas

PRINT YOUR FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

Bonus question: What specifically did the editors complain about in Jane Goodall's first submission for publication?