

Guided Practice

Put students into groups of 3-4

Have small groups write one objective for each cognitive level.

Have small groups share their work with whole group. (Sharing should be done after each objective has been written.)

Ask for show of hands of those in large group who agree with what each small group has written.

Have those who disagree explain why – lead discussion on any necessary improvements.