

Behavioral Objectives

When asked to do so, the student will spell his/her first name orally without error.

Given a standard phone and a list of seven-digit phone numbers, the student will dial at least 4 out of 5 phone numbers correctly on the first trial.

Given a traffic light model and upon verbal request, the student will state the three colors it contains with 100% accuracy.

Given an assortment of coins and bills and items of various values, the student will correctly make change 10 out of 10 times.