Best University to Attain
an MBA in 2010!

The Indiana University Northwest School of Business and Economics thanks Northwest Indiana Business Quarterly and its readers for selecting us as Best University to Attain an MBA in 2010!

As Chicagoland's Affordable AACSB Business School, IU Northwest offers area professionals the academic quality, value and convenience they expect from their MBA program.

In January, the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International reaffirmed IU Northwest's accreditation for an additional six years. The IU Northwest School of Business and Economics remains the only public business program in Northwest Indiana to carry this prestigious seal of quality for business education.

Congratulations to the faculty, staff, and students of the IU Northwest School of Business and Economics for being voted Best University to Attain an MBA!
