

Diversity Library Protocol

The ODE Library operates with virtue and respect for all races, creeds, preferences, abilities, ethnicities, and creations. We as a team will provide information in regards to education, pedagogy, equality, diversity, and awareness. We seek to enhance the educational experience, primarily for students, but for all of our internal and external publics by administering tools, programs, and values that inevitably make diversity and equity invaluable to our global society.

Location- The Diversity Library is located in Marram Hall room 118.

Resources- Refer to the website for the list of the resources the library contains.
