

Focus groups are implemented.

Town hall meetings held to develop ideas regarding the most effective actions to take to address concerns identified in the survey.

Action items are prepared based on topics identified by focus groups and town hall participants.

Lack of leadership/ supervisory training is identified as an action item.

Administration commits to developing a scorecard of critical leadership skills.

Items are selected for scorecard and finalized with deans and other leaders.

