Bill Strong

Vice Chairman, Morgan Stanley
and Indiana University Trustee

A nationally recognized investment banker, Bill Strong is currently Vice Chairman of Morgan Stanley, a global financial services firm. His specialty at Morgan Stanley is assisting his clients in completing mergers, acquisitions and divestitures as well as capital raising transactions, representing such clients as BorgWarner, Boeing, CDW Corporation, Parker-Hannifin, Northern Trust and TransUnion Corp.

Recently appointed to the Indiana University Board of Trustees by Governor Mitchell Daniels, Strong has also had experience in government roles, including leading an economic mission to Iraq in 2008 in which he conferred with leading Iraqi and U.S. officials on accelerating Western investments in Iraq. He was also appointed by President George W. Bush to the Board of Visitors of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, NY.

Strong is active in various non-profit activities, including the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the Newseum, and The Economic Club of Chicago.
