Chancellor’s Update
IU Northwest Highlights
- Chancellor Iwama gave a presentation on campus highlights that occurred during the 2021 – 2022 academic year:
  - President Whitten visited IU Northwest: During her March 2022 visit, President Whitten met with student leaders, witnessed nursing students in action, and heard about innovative community-focused research being led by students. She also spoke with community leaders during a breakfast forum. View photos from her visit.
  - Group Scholars Program: IU Northwest is the first IU regional campus to offer this student success program for first-generation and underrepresented students. Learn more.
  - Hispanic-Serving Institution designation: Campus received this designation, which has opened many funding/grant opportunities to serve all students. Learn more.
  - School of Education partnership with the School City of Hammond: Partnership established with Hammond K-12 teachers currently working on emergency permits, offering teachers a path to full licensure. Learn more.
  - Male Resource Fair: Community resource fair held on campus with 66 local organizations providing resources and services to attendees. View news story from WLS-TV.
  - Terry and Karen McMahon Philanthropy: University Advancement and External Affairs (UAEA), along with RedHawk Athletics, celebrated the McMahon’s philanthropy with a ribbon-cutting of the renovated athletic facilities. Learn more.
  - Tamarack Green Renovation: Green space near the Moraine Student Center is being reimagined to provide students with an additional communal space. Renovation is being funded through philanthropy, thanks to the work of UAEA.
  - Editorials: Recent editorials penned by Chancellor Iwama, published in the Times of Northwest Indiana
    - Sparking innovation can drive economic growth in Northwest Indiana: a university blueprint
    - Enhancing relevance of Region through higher ed partnership
  - Board of Trustees: Visiting the IU Northwest campus June 16, 17.

Enrollment
- Enrollment for the summer semester is up significantly, thanks to an incentive where students who enrolled in six or more credit hours earned a $1,000 tuition credit.
- Enrollment for the fall semester is down, in line with national trends. The entire campus continues to keep a close eye on the numbers and is offering students tuition credits and other incentives to help bolster fall enrollment.
Presentation of IU Northwest Proposed Strategic Plan – Chancellor Iwama and Task Force Chairs

• The Strategic Plan process has been moving swiftly over the last academic year.
