

Raoul Contreras
Department of Minority Studies
Associate Professor
At IU Northwest since 1994

SCHOLARLY PUBLICATIONS AND CREATIVE ACHIEVEMENTS

ARTICLES (in refereed journals):

“What is Latino Studies ? The Ideological Dimension of Program ‘Construction’ and Program ‘Location.’” Latino Studies Journal 11:1 (Winter 2000), 25-49.

“Chicano Studies: A Political Strategy of the Chicano Movement,” Mapping Strategies: NACCS and The Challenge of Multiple (Re)Oppressions - Selected Proceedings of The National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies. Chicago, Illinois. Editorial Committee: Maria Antonia Beltran-Vocal, Manuel de Jesus Hernandez- Gutierrez, Sylvia Fuentes, 1999, Pp. 92-112.

“Chicano Movement Chicano Studies: Social Science and ‘Self-Conscious’ Ideology.” Perspectives in Mexican American Studies 6 (1997), 20-51.

“Principles and Foundations of Chicano Studies: Chicano Organization on University Campuses in California,” Chicano Discourse - Selected Conference Proceedings of the National Association for Chicano Studies. Salt Lake City, Utah. Eds., Tatcho Mindiola Jr. and Emilio Zamora, 1992. Pp. 32-39.

Revised: 03/07/09