

So because IU Northwest is a very small campus, you would think that you wouldn't be able to learn as much. However, one of the most impactful things that I've experienced and learned is that it's not about the amount of people that you surround yourselves with, but it's the quality of those people. And so I've made a lot of quality relationships with the faculty, staff, and students, at IU Northwest, and so I feel like that has been one of the most impactful things that I've learned.
