Budget Adjustment Appeal

2022-2023 Academic Year

The Budget Adjustment Appeal allows us to review your financial aid based on unusual circumstances.

Note: Your Cost of Attendance already includes normal daily expenses.

The unusual circumstances may include one or more of the following paid:
- Major car repairs, excessive mileage expenses, uninsured medical/dental costs, one time computer purchase, or dependent care costs

Requirements

- Completed and submitted a 2022-2023 FAFSA
- Include all required documentation (Receipts of Purchase or Payment)
- Provide a detailed written statement explaining your need for a Budget Adjustment.

Please fill out, sign, and return all required documentation to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

Revised 01/24/22
Sections 1-4: Completing sections 1, 2, 3, and/or 4 may allow an increase in your estimated cost of attendance. A cost of attendance/budget increase does not guarantee that your financial aid will be adjusted. If you have already borrowed the maximum Federal Direct Loan amount for your loan aggregate and/or academic year, please consider alternative sources of funding.

Please check the type of expenses that are applicable to the student/family member(s) circumstance.
