MyRA is a reporting tool that allows Principal Investigators to view the status of Grant and Contract data as well as Compliance data.

Access MyRA to:

- Quickly access data, news, and office locations
- View summary of your Budget, Actual Expenditures, Percent Expended, Encumbrances, and Balance for the account
- Retrieve valuable protocol information
- Export data to Excel, Email & Print page Functions

Logging In

To access MyRA, click on the “Access MyRA” link from the Systems Toolbox located on the Office of Research Administration home page (<http://researchadmin.iu.edu>).

The user will need to CAS Authenticate in order to access MyRA. Enter your IU network username and password:

MyAwards

If you are a Principal Investigator, the system will take you directly to a view a listing all of your awards by agency. Otherwise, you will first need to search for an investigator, and then you will be able to view all of his/her awards.

Grant Application Training

The Office of Sponsored Programs has launched an one-hour training session that will cover My Research Administration for all current and future Project Directors.

Opt-in to Research Email Services

IU research offices offer e-mail newsletters and announcements that contain funding news, updates on research compliance, information on managing grants and contracts, and more. To subscribe to these e-mail services, please see the links below.

Research News E-mail Service - <http://researchadmin.iu.edu/News/email-news.html>

This service is provided by the Office of Research Administration. The service is used to communicate policies, rates, and other important announcements regarding the preparation and submission of proposals, and the responsible conduct of research at Indiana University.

Research Funding Updates - http://www.research.indiana.edu/funding_feeds.shtml

The Office of the Vice President for Research issues Research Funding Update emails that announce timely limited submission and external funding information. These email announcements are delivered approximately once a week. Faculty on all campuses are encouraged to subscribe to the limited submission funding update.
